

STORY PICTURE for July

When your little sister turns 13 and all she wanted to do was go to the horse races and have everyone dress like at the Kentucky Derby this is what we do!!!!!! Jeff myself and Alexy just happened upon the track one weekend last summer and Alexy loves it so that's what she decided to do for her birthday last month!!!!!!

We even started our day out with an invitation to the winners circle after the first race (which doesn't just happen to anyone I guess) I turned around and the next think I knew all my kids where going into the gate with the owner!!!!!! It was a once in a lifetime experience to say the least. He told Jeff and I that he just loves our family's enthusiasm and excitement of his win it was so cool and a birthday she will never forget!!!!!! Debbie Blackburn 6/5/2022
