

A large, open, light-brown wicker picnic basket sits on a light-colored cloth spread over green grass. Inside the basket, various items are visible: a silver thermos, a glass of white wine, a plate with a blue floral pattern, and a small blue water bottle. A rolled-up brown towel is tucked into the side of the basket. In the foreground, a glass of white wine sits on the cloth next to a loaf of dark bread with sesame seeds and a baguette. A white drawstring bag is also visible. To the right, a white bucket contains green grapes, a lime, and red apples. The text "A Blackburn Family Picnic" is written in large yellow letters at the top, "Retrospective" is in large yellow letters below it, and "2013-2019" is in white letters at the bottom.
