

Drew's Heaven Run

By

G.A. Blackburn

"It's time Drew..."

Today we say goodbye

We knew this day would come
But it always seemed so far Away.
Now here your life is done
We shared a decade of that time
That came to an end to soon.

You will never be forgotten
As we share the memories and the love you gave us,
You will always be around.
These are our treasures and your legacy
Here that still abounds

In this Universe we call home
Life never really ends because we share it with each other
And some that are just always "Man's best friend"!
You were the heart and soul of so many special lives
You will live on with us here
As we remember your touch and feel
Snuggling up and sneaking a treat or meal.

These are the things we still feel
There is so much love for you Drew!

You will never be gone, Only waiting for us to Finish our Journey's end
To take you out for a....
Heavens Run!
