

Our Family Story from a Family Tree

This tree cross-section was cut from a tree felled on Stephen's Property in Northern California.

The ring pattern not only tells the story of this magnificent tree but the history of our family as well.

It began growing in the forrest around 1900. It was cut down in 2022.

I will show you how to read the HOB story from these rings.

Papa